

CONSULTANTS & CONTRACTORS AT ICSA

The Indian (Sub-Cont) Crisis & Support Agency is owned by the community to be run by the community promoting and enabling the successful growth of our community in Australia.

The Agency delivers prescribed support services, provides advice, supplies guidance to Government bodies and engages in evidence based advocacy in bespoke issues.

There are a number of ways of working towards and delivering on the program objectives. There are great opportunities for consulting or contracting your services through ICSA.

CONSULTANTS

CLINICAL OR PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

Consultants in the main are people who have their own private practice and want to diversify their portfolio. For registrations and accreditation criteria can deliver their services through ICSA.

Consultants are professionals who take on client matters in their field of expertise, that is needed in one a fee-based services. Consultants are paid accordingly, per engagement or assignment,

CAPACITY BUILDING & TRAINING

ICSA professional training and capacity building services are developed and delivered by experts & specialists.

ICSA consultants often offer pro bono services in their area of expertise in exceptional or hardship cases.

CONTRACTORS

FIXED TERM CONTRACT

Grant or one-off projects may require a project worker for the duration of the project. We recruit first from our pool of volunteers and pro bono supporters and where needed advertise to fill the role.

RETAINER

ICSA employs contractors on a retainer where applicable, specialist areas of practice or expertise are then called on when needed at mutually agreed rates and conditions.

AGREEMENTS

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

ICSA will enter MOUs with community & welfare organisations or private enterprise for a formal collaboration. Such AGREEMENTS are formed to deliver on specific projects or working parties.

PARTNERSHIPS

ICSA will form partnerships with other organisations where a contractual relationship is necessary to clarify roles, relationships, responsibilities and financial arrangements.

FACT SHEET

BENEFITS

- Collaborative working arrangement
- No need to look for clients
- Cost benefits of consortium based administration.
- Professional services
- Develop Community Intelligence collaboratively
- Network with allied workers
- Self-determination in working capacity
- Autonomy in practice
- Group Supervision and mentoring through ICSA
- Work at your convenience
- Access professional development
- Comply with accreditation criteria
- References
- Testimonials

Our professionals receive regular updates and information through our newsletter.

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

If you have goods, services or professional capacity that could support our clients; We invite you to register with us.

Contact us at

info@icsa.net.au